NOTE: This will be a weekday rally: dates are correct!

Due to their convenient location to St. Augustine and nestled between the ocean on one end of the campground and the river on the other end, this resort charges a minimum of $50 per night. They have agreed to take up to 25 RVW reservations at a rate of $35 for the four week nights (Monday-Thursday), hoping some will come early or stay late and pay their regular rates for the weekends. These will be full hook-up sites (30 or 50 amp); they also have a few cabins on the property, but pets are not permitted in the cabins. There is a fishing pier on the river side and two restaurants, essentially on site. In lieu of a potluck, we will arrange an event with one of the restaurants. Call Debbie at the park for rally reservations; she is there Tues-Thurs. Contact Arlene Dawson at (386) 214-0719 or arlenedawson@bellsouth.net for questions or to advise of reservation.

MAY 2010

Location: Geiger Key RV Park in the Florida Keys. There are photos and great info on their website. This is a Passport Park and they will be letting us use our discount which is HUGE in the keys. We'll be only ten miles (ten minutes) from downtown Key West. BRING YOUR PASSPORT AMERICA CARD WITH YOU! Rally leader: Lynette Birch. The phone number at Geiger Key is 305-296-3553. Activities so far: Monroe county's K-9 unit will come out to give a demonstration with their German Shepherds. And maybe a self defense program for us, too. On the light side, of course. A trip to the Dry Tortugas planned. I won't ask anybody to call ahead. Two years in a row, canceled, is enough. I don't like getting our hopes up and then canceled. If the weather permits and cooperates while we're there, one morning when we wake up I'll say: "Anybody want to go to The Tortugas today"? We'll play that particular activity by ear. Another sunset sail will be scheduled on The Jolly Rover. Everybody really enjoyed that. It was a nice sunset sail. A tour of a Navy ship is planned. A N DA Deep Sea Fishing Trip is already reserved! The price on that is $500.00 for a half day for four people! I know it sounds like a lot of bucks, but, there already are six gals that are absolutely positive committed to going. The captain can take four on his boat, which means..... $125.00 per person. Guaranteed to bring lots of fish back for Mary Bowman's fish fry! She already volunteered for that, another one of our activities planned. The Captain said that he'll make two half day trips for us so all who want to go fishing can go. Sunday is the Smokehouse barbecue. Awesome barbecue with lots
